Masoxic.-At the regular meeting of Hawalian Lodge No. 21, F, and A. M. on Monday evening last the following officers were elected for the epsuing year, W. M. D.R. Fyle re-elected, S. W. W. L. Wilcox, s. W. H. McIntyre, Secretary, C. T. Gulick, re-elected, Treasurer F. A. Schaefer, re-

Im luquirles are frequently made by parties in the United States in regard to our climate, soil, productions, etc. To all such we would say that the Hawahan Guide Book contains full information on all these points, and many others. It may always be obtained in San Francisco at the depot of the San Francisco News Company, near the Post

THE MORNING STAR arrived at Pern, one of the Gilbert group on the 25d of July, 18 days from Honolulu. Arrived at Tapitenes on the 24th of the same month, was there four days. On the 4th of August she was at Apalang; on the 9th was at Bu-taritari. On the Aug. 28th she was at Jelul of the Marshall Islands. All on board well, missionaries in their usual health. Nothing special to be noted

RABE BOOKS .- At the Bookstore of H. M. Whitney may be found a few copies of that very rare book, Ellis' Tour around Hawaii. It was printed over fifty years and contains much interest ing and valuable information. During the late visit of the Rev. Dr. Damon to the States he came across bese books while delving among the antiquarian treasures of some second-hand book store in treasures of some second-hand book store Boston city, and purchased them at a low figu

CALEDONIAN MEETING .- The members of the Hawallan Caledonian Club attended their meeting in full strength on St. Andrew's day when a constitution and by-laws were adopted. The meeting was opened and closed with prayer by the chaplain, much entioniasm and faith in the objects of the club were manifested. The guthering was very agreeable and social, and the prospects of the club-were declared to be encouraging. Four new mem-bers were elected.

We learn from Maul, that on Sunday the 26th ult., the long drought which has prevailed on the windward side of that island was ended by a tolerably copious rain from the south. At Ulupalakus, and Lahains, the rain fell le torrents. Walluku, a good rain; at Makawao, somewhat less copious, enough to give some precious feet of water in the clusterus, but not enough to start the big guich and water holes. Grove Banch and Haiku had a similar rain, besides one a week or more wallan sallors on the whale-ship Ralabow, a boatstoerer, who has lust returned from a cruise to the Arctic, met with a remarkable accident during his absence. One day while out in his boat after a whale, the gun in the hands of one of the crew, who was to shoot the whale as soon as harpooned, was accidentally discharged, and the bomb-lance with solidentally discharged and the bomb-lance with solide which it was loaded, struck him on the back of the neck, just grazing the spinal column, passing belween the carotid artery and the traches, and making its exit through the middle of the inferior maxillary bone which was badly fractured. Strange to say this rough treatment did not prove fatal, but the wounds rapidly healed and the man is now whofly recovered. His name is Kalauku alias Harry Smith.

OUTRAGROUS ASSESSMENTS .- Mr. Koli Unauna. the assessor for the Ewa and Waisanae district has been doing his best to produce a sufficient revenue to the Government from that district alone, to make up all deficiencies resulting from the Treaty, and extinguish the national debt in the bargain. Or he may be endeavoring to illustrate his financial ability with a view to occupying by and bye the office of the Minister of Finance. A small plece of land belonging to a native woman, and not worth according to the most extravagant estimates more than $30,00 was assessed by him for $6,000, so that the poor woman will be competled in taxes almost the actual value of the land. The land of Halawa, not valued at more than $6,000, is put down by this gentleman of large ideas at $30,000, and the Ford island in Pesri River loch, for which, judging from its annual rents $1,500 would be a big price is asseased also at $20,000; probably upon the ground that Pesri River may atsome future day become the harbor of a vest city. The John II land, which is worth about $10,000 is appraised at $50,000 and the Conev estate for which $40,000 is a high valuation, at $200,000. Instances of the same kind might be cited almost indefinitely. These extertions come heaviest on the natives, who in their ignorance of the laws, fall to note an appeal at the proper time, and consequently are generally obliged to pay the full amount of the most unrighteous exactions. island in Pearl River lock, for which, ludging from

DEATH OF AN OLD SEA CAPTAIN .- Many of the older residents of Honolulu will remember Capt. Gilbert Chase, who visited these islands during the fifties. In the Newport News, we find the following notice of his death:

From the Colonies.

By the Pacific Mail Steamship City of New York, Captale Cavarly which arrived on Monday afternoon fourteen days from Kandavu, we have dates to the 17th from New Zealand. From the N. Z. Herald we cull the following extracts.

The session of the New Zealand Parliament has been brought to a close, after five months' eltting; the last fortnight of which was devoted to the dispatch of public business. Many of the members, the last fortnight of which was devoted to the dis-patch of public business. Many of the members, wearied out and disgusted by the endless discus-sions of the Legislature, had previously moved homewards. The Assembly was prorougued by commission. The supplementary financial state-ment of the Colonial Treasurer, recently made in the Assembly, is scarcely of so satisfactory a charac-ter as could be desired. The estimated revenue is set down at £3,146.902, and the expenditure at £2,087,948.

ment of the Colonial Treasurer, recently made in the Assembly, is searcely of so satisfactory a character as could be desired. The estimated revenue is set down at £2,165,902, and the expenditure at £2,087,948.

In the debate on the San Francisco mail service, the tollowing resolution was passed:—"That the colony is not prepared to accept any modifications beyond those contained in the resolution of the 18th instant, excepting that, it the event of the contractors electing to call at Auckland, and discontinue the coastal service, they must make a further annual deduction of £5000. Sydney and New Zealand to provide for a coastal service at their joint expense."

We learn that the New Zealand Government have not yet received any definite intimation from New South Walcs, or the Mail Agency, coaceroing the future arrangement of the Pacific Mail Service, but that such intimation is daily expected. It is very desirable that the difficulty should be settled as aoon as possible. We believe that delay is franght with much danger to the maintenance of the service.
